

Pursuant to provisions of international law, after reasonable time of six months since voiding the Catherine Kosača's last will where the protest against usurpation of sovereignty continued as before, and since the Parliament of Bosnia-Herzegovina is unable to convene due to grave security situation, and since the Council of Ministers of Bosnia-Herzegovina is unable to convene too which makes it a Government-in-Exile, and since international law grants me the right to appoint and dissolve such Governments, and as unchallenged after reasonable time of over two years since created the sovereign of the land(s), I hereby Ultra Vires proclaim this

Act of Creating and Declaring

Monarchical Title of King of Bosnia and All of Illyria; Kingdoms of Bosnia, Croatia, Serbia

1. A monarchical title of King of Bosnia and All of Illyria is hereby established replacing the title of the Crown Prince of Bosnia, containing all the prerogatives as normally prescribed under international law, including internal and external sovereignty rights of Illyria proper: Kingdom of Bosnia, Kingdom of Croatia, Kingdom of Serbia, and Duchy of Montenegro.
2. The signee hereby assumes the monarchical title thus established with its prerogatives, and is hereby proclaimed King of Bosnia and All of Illyria, immediately without limitations. The monarchical crown is the Imperial Crown of Illyria as shown in the header above. The monarch's name and insignia shall be proclaimed accordingly at the coronation ceremony.
3. Bosnia-Herzegovina is hereby declared Kingdom of Bosnia, where previous royal decrees constitute the basis for the law of the land as righteous, and neutral in matters international.

Executed in Bosnian and English, in Sarajevo on this 13th day of June, A.D. 2013.
